PRESS RELEASE

April 2nd - April 6th

Twinning 25th Anniversary

The Town Clerk, Andrew Tubb, the Mayor, Councillor Mrs Shirley Alexander, Town Councillors and the Twinning Association would like to welcome visitors from Itzehoe, Germany, as our towns celebrate the 25th Anniversary of Twinning.

Celebrations include: -

- a tour of the Royal Agricultural College and lunch at the kind invitation of the Principal, Professor Chris Gaskell (Thursday, 3rd)
- a talk and tour of the Corinium Museum by kind arrangement of Dr John Paddock and Councillor David Fowles (Thursday, 3rd)
- a tour of the Cotswold Woollen Weavers by kind arrangement of Filkins (Friday, 4th)
- a Civic Society Town Walk by kind arrangement of Martin Portus and Jim Thompson (Friday, 4th)
- afternoon tea at the New Brewery Arts Centre by the kind arrangement of Ali Russell, Director (Friday, 4th)
- Official Ceremony at the Bingham House, Gallery and Conference Suite (Saturday, 5th)
- Music and Friendship evening at the Bingham Hall, with thanks to the Bingham Hall, Jenny Whiddett and respective staff for all their help and assistance (Saturday, 5th)

Special thanks goes to the Town Council, its staff and the Twinning Association for funding and all help and assistance leading up to and during this occasion.

Thanks also goes to all host families and local businesses, and individuals, who have also helped in making this historic event such a memorable occasion.

We look forward to a further 25 years of friendship between the people and towns of Cirencester and Itzehoe.

Photographs will be available week commencing April 7th. If you would like to cover this special occasion, please email administrator@cirencester.gov.uk and we will arrange for photographs and further edit to be forwarded.
